RISK ASSESSMENT

How to assess risk at the Sports venue

This leaflet aims to help the Sporting Sections of the Police Sport UK and Organising Committees to assess risks at Championship Venues and other places where Police Sport UK Approved Sport is taking place.

What is risk assessment?

A risk assessment is nothing more than a careful physical examination, before and during the organisation of any Police Sporting event, of any Sports Stadium or other venue where the Police Sport UK Sporting event is taking place.

STEP 1: Look for the hazards –

You must visit the venue beforehand and make a physical examination of all the facilities and equipment that will be in use at the Sporting event. Think laterally and ask yourself what could reasonably be expected to cause harm. During the running of the event you must ask yourself the same questions and be prepared to act on any further hazard that comes to light.

STEP 2: Decide who might be harmed and also how –

You must take account of all persons who are likely to be in the Stadium or at the venue, including *competitors, *coaches, *committee members, *Championship officials and *members of the public. Do not assume that all other people know the rules or have considered their own "Duty of Care".

STEP 3: Evaluate the risks and decide what further precautions you need to take to ensure the safety of all who attend the Championships –

You must ask yourself how likely the hazards, you have assessed, are to cause harm to the separate categories of persons you have identified and consider what the law expects you to do in providing a "Reasonable Standard of Care" to all persons attending the event, in whatever capacity.

STEP 4: Record your findings –

Overleaf you will find a Risk Assessment Document, which you are required to complete at the time when the venue is first established. You must ensure that any recommendations you make are brought to the attention of the "Safety Officer" in order that he can implement the Policy of the Police Sport UK . During the course of the running of the event you are required to make a further assessment and bring to the attention of the Safety Officer any further hazard you identify.

You are required to supervise the event and give advice where necessary.
